

Law Place

Herrick Archives Number H 992

The Cabinet on April 21, 1925 ordered a well to be provided at the "Law Place." This was probably one of the University houses rented to employees, but efforts to identify it have failed.

There is no Law listed in university directories, city directories, or telephone directories of the period, and no Law in the University's personnel records.

John H. Herrick
July 17, 1979